WORLD NEWS IN REVIEW

DEADLINE FOR FASCISM

President Roosevelt this week circled the Western Hemisphere with a boldly drawn deadline against fascism and invited twenty sister republics and the Dominion of Canada to help the United States defend itself against aggression. Mr. Roosevelt coupled his announcement with severe comment on German persecution of Jews.

This establishment of a United States defense on a "continental" basis is expected to have serious bearings on the Pan-American conference in Lima, Peru, which opens December 9. Secretary Hull will sail next week to represent the United States.

THE NEW GOVERNOR

Governor-elect Olson is scheduled to leave for Washington soon where he will confer with President Roosevelt. Mr. Olson, it is reported, intends to ask the Federal Government to care for the so-called "dust-bowl refugees" who have swarmed to California precipitating a crisis for state relief agencies.

Mr. Olson indicated this week that he plans to go through with his announced intention of holding a pardon hearing for Tom Mooney, labor's martyr.

SAN FRANCISCO JUBILANT

Announcement that trade agreements with Great Britain and Canada would be signed at the White House this week sent San Francisco foreign traders into a jovial mood.

"The United Kingdom is the best foreign buyer in San Francisco markets; Canada is seventh best," said William Montgomery, secretary of the foreign trade association here.

OHIO DILEMMA

Formal education was out last week in Dayton, Ohio, but one graphic first-hand lesson the youngsters were learning was that their elders knew thoroughly how to mismanage a city. Dayton's schools were closed because the Board of Education was penniless, owed many thousands of dollars and saw no money coming in before 1939. Screw manipulating of the tax rate was blamed for the dilemma in relatively wealthy Ohio. This week rudely awakened Daytonians were to vote for the seventh time on a proposed special 2-mill levy. Even should this special assessment pass, citizens will still have to figure out a way to open schools before the new year as the new funds will not be available until after the first.

WARNING

Investigation into the cause of two recent local fires discloses that both of them were started by overheated and faulty fireplaces. Fire Chief A. P. Chesney and Building Inspector A. J. Bodien advise for safety it is imperative that residents inspect fireplaces to be sure they are in good condition—then obtain an iron basket and light fires only in the basket. It is not safe, the officials declare, to light fires on the bare brick surfaces.

Daly City Band Elects President

Daly City Band chose Fred Mather to serve as president of the organization at an election Tuesday evening of last week. Charley Williamson had held the post for several years. The band, a leading civic organization, makes a large number of public appearances each year. Recently it furnished music locally for the Halloween party and for groundbreaking ceremonies at the new city hall. It is scheduled to furnish music for the post office dedication to be held the second week in December. Holding regular weekly rehearsal at the American Legion hall on San Diego avenue, the band is preparing to appear on New Year's Day at the East-West classic.

LOCAL FIREMEN TAKE PART IN COLLEGE

Fire Chief A. P. Chesney reports that several of the local fire department members have been participating in a state-wide educational program dealing with fire prevention and extinguishment. The State Board of Education appointed Instructor David Glines for San Mateo county and, according to Chesney, courses taken under him will prove of great benefit.

Local members who took the course include Commissioner R. Ennis, Battalion Chief E. Kennedy, Captains Sundstrom and Petersen and Fireman J. Walsh. After an additional intensive course in December the local men will be qualified to teach all appointees to the fire department as well as the present membership.

Chief Chesney has taken a great interest in the establishment of the state-wide fire college.

A gigantic, state-wide celebration will lead up to the opening of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition on San Francisco Bay's Treasure Island next February 18.

PURCELL TELLS OF BAY BRIDGE TRANSPORTATION

Transbay Traffic Up 300 Per Cent In Year

On November 12, 1936, the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge was officially opened to traffic.

In the two years the bridge has been in service approximately 17,800,000 vehicles, transporting more than 39,160,000 persons, have crossed the span, Chief Engineer C. H. Purcell recently reported.

Up to November 1, 1938, the bridge has earned a total of $9,480,514.31 with a daily average since the span opened of 24,388 vehicles.

"In the past year," Mr. Purcell said, "the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge has stimulated transbay traffic approximately 300 per cent over the pre-bridge year 1935, and the total number of persons transported across the span would find its equivalent if every man, woman, and child of San Francisco and Alameda Counties crossed the bridge 36 times. The bridge is unquestionably not only paying for itself in terms of revenue, but also in terms of business stimulation for the Bay Area and its surrounding territory through the time saving and convenience of its facilities."

Traffic has shown a general increase this year over last year, Mr. Purcell announced.

Exposition traffic has provided an important item in the year's report, according to Mr. Purcell. The total number of automobiles traveling to the Exposition during the year to November 1 was 76,950. Other totals include: trucks, 14,725; buses, 389; motorcycles and trailers, 296. There was a total of 99,643, 237 freight pounds transported to the Exposition.

SAFETY

The Bay Bridge highway still remains one of the safest in the nation, with 106 accidents occurring on the span proper in the past two years out of a total of 17,534,944 vehicles crossing the bridge to November 1, 1938.

Captain S. M. Flynn of the California Highway Patrol detailed to the Bay Bridge reports that a noticeable decrease in drunk driving, speeding, and reckless driving has resulted from strict enforcement of bridge traffic rules, together with the co-operation of the courts. Arrests and citations are down approximately one-third, Captain Flynn said.

Construction of the Bay Bridge Electric Railway Facilities is nearing completion, Mr. Purcell said, with trains expected to be in operation some time between January 1 and 15, no specific day having yet been set. The Terminal Building is practically completed, except for the final cleaning up, and major construction has been finished on the entire facilities except for erection of train inspection buildings in the East Bay Yard. Last-minute construction will take place the night before the trains start operation when Key System tracks will be cut in at the easterly end of the bridge and Southern Pacific tracks at the Seventh street connection.

Bob Ripley Pays Visit to West

Robert Ripley

Believe it or not, Bob Ripley, cartoonist and gatherer of unusual "slants," who recently visited the West coast, including Los Angeles, San Francisco and Santa Rosa, his birthplace. Like many other famous cartoonists and writers, Ripley served his apprenticeship on San Francisco newspapers. He lost two newspaper jobs, believe it or not, while trying to get started as a cartoonist in San Francisco.

U. S. Envoy to Berlin Recalled

HUGH R. WILSON

Hugh R. Wilson, United States Ambassador to Germany, who was recently recalled from Berlin. This act definitely constituted a protest by the American government against religious and racial persecution, according to William E. Dodd, former U. S. Ambassador to Germany.

Two Fires Damage Daly City Homes

Overheated fireplaces, as winter's chill grasp settled down on the Peninsula last week-end, started two fires in local homes that caused several thousands of dollars of damage.

Three companies of firemen fought a blaze at the home of E. F. Butcher, 359 Woodrow street. They were forced to rip four holes in walls of the home to reach the center of the raging blaze which had started from an overheated fireplace. The fire also damaged the home of E. A. Hovey, 363 Woodrow street, located adjacent to the Butcher residence.

At 2 a. m. Sunday morning firemen were called to a blaze at 585 Bellevue avenue, the home of Paul Von Guerner. Starting from behind the fireplace, the fire spread to the basement and roof. Companies 1, 4 and 5 attached two hose lines to extinguish the blaze.

Accident Victim Has Recovered

William Nurge, 42, of 61 San Diego avenue returned to work this week. He was treated in the Villa Sanitarium Wednesday of last week for lacerations on the face and head sustained when he was struck down by an automobile driven by John George Willschlegler of San Francisco.

The accident occurred at Winchester street and Templeton avenue. Nurge who was knocked unconscious was removed to the hospital in an ambulance.

HOME BASEBALL TEAM PLAYS SUNDAY

Daly City baseball fans will have opportunity to see the Daly City-San Mateo team in action Sunday at Burlingame when the home team plays a double header in the Peninsular Winter League against a colored team from Redwood City, called the Redwood City Merchants.

First game will be called at 11 a. m. and the second game at 2 p. m.

POOLE DENIES SHIP LINES TO MOVE

Arthur B. Poole, vice president of the American President Lines, in a recent address before the San Francisco Chapter of the Chartered Life Underwriters, stated that there was no foundation to the rumor that the headquarters of the American President Lines would be moved to Los Angeles. He also pointed out that American shipping lines possessed the safest ships afloat. This factor, together with the much improved labor situation and increased ship building point to the most successful era in the history of American navigation, according to Mr. Poole. He stated that for the first time in the history of American steamship navigation, the United States has embarked on a solid long range policy.

Seabiscuit, Ligaroti Head List of Favored Horses at Tanforan

Northern California's greatest thoroughbred stars in modern times are matching strides over the historic Tanforan course during the Fall meeting, which opened Tuesday, November 15. The racing spotlight of America is focused upon such titans of the turf as Seabiscuit, Main Man, Ligaroti, Finance, War Minstrel, Specify, Comet II, Fair Knightess, Kayak II, to mention but a few.

Seabiscuit, the Charles S. Howard champion, returns to his home course—Tanforan—the unquestioned monarch of racing. His triumph over War Admiral swung the East solidly to his side, yet strangely enough, the West, which backed him to beat the Admiral, believes that the Argentine star, Ligaroti, will prove a far sterner foe than War Admiral.

Ligaroti ran Seabiscuit to a nose at Del Mar, California, this summer with a 15 pound weight advantage. Since then, the smooth - striding, hard-hitting invader from the Pampas has steadily improved, proving beyond doubt that he's an excellent weight packer. He handled 130 pounds at Bay Meadows recently, coming from nowhere to crush a smart sprint field in the closing strides. He'll be ready for the "Biscuit!"

The Argentine thoroughbreds, incidentally, hold a splendid chance of winning new laurels here. Comet II, unbeaten in three starts, has been hailed as a new 3-year-old star. Olimpo, third Argentine member of the Binglin stable (Bing Crosby and Lin Howard) has convinced clockers that he's to be reckoned with when he makes his debut here.

Then there will be two sterling Argentine horses arriving in the Seabiscuit entourage—Kayak II, winner of four straight in the East and hailed as a new sensation; and Limpio, a horse which hasn't yet run to brilliant Santa Anita trials.

Five newcomers from the Argentine are quartered here in the James F. Waters stable, and according to their records in South America, they rank on a par with Ligaroti.

Invading Tanforan for the first time will be the stable of Mrs. Emil Denmark of Chicago with such aces as Finance, War Minstrel, Two Bob and other good ones.

Louis B. Mayer, the Hollywood film magnate, who has made such a sensational entrance into racing, will

RED CROSS ROLL CALL TO SET NEW RECORD

Reports from chairmen in twenty communities of San Mateo County would indicate that the twenty-second Red Cross Roll Call will mark a new record both in membership and contributions.

"We feel that the public has a better understanding of our Public Health Nursing Service," stated Mrs. J. H. P. Howard, jr., chairman of the Chapter Nursing Activities Committee. "It is interesting to compare our local records with national figures. Throughout the United States, Red Cross Public Health School Nurses examined 559,187 children and arranged curative treatments for 162,350. Of these children, 2,238 were in our county under the care of Miss Eleanor Thronsdon, Red Cross School Nurse, who reported 668 corrected defects. The San Mateo County Chapter shared with the school districts Miss Thronsdon's salary and expenses."

Chairlady of the local Red Cross Roll Call is Mrs. Madeleine Fellows, assisted by Mrs. Mary Crane, Mrs. Alice Reilly, Mrs. Evelyn Zraggen and Mrs. Romilda Grondona.

WILL START WORK ON COAST ROAD SOON

Grading and surfacing eight and two tenths miles of the Ocean Shore Highway from Davenport to Waddell Creek in Santa Cruz County was scheduled to start soon, following award of the contract to N. M. Ball Sons of Berkeley this week by State Director of Public Works Earl Lee Kelly.

The contract price is $232,429. The Associated Press said work planned by the state will bring the total cost to $280,000.

N. M. Ball Sons will complete the La Honda contract Thursday, according to County Engineer U. S. Marshall, and will move the heavy equipment in use there to the coast highway project.

The coast job calls for rerouting the highway to near sea level around Gianone Hill. The present road leaves the coast at Waddell Creek, climbs steeply and returns to sea level near Davenport.

have his imposing stable at full strength with Main Man, Magic Hour, Quick Devil representing him in the major handicaps. His 2-year-old division includes three stars, Joy Boy, Flying Bonny and Mask and Wig.

Specify, one of America's fastest 3-year-olds, is expected here for the $10,000 San Francisco Handicap, December 17. He gained national prestige by running the Kentucky Derby winner, Lawrin, to a head at Hollywood Park this summer.

The riding division will include Johnny Longden, leading reinsman for 1938, and Johnny Adams, leader last year, and now hot on Longden's heels. Other noted booters will be George Woolf, Jack Westrope, Charley Corbett, Silvio Coucci, Basil James, Frank Sheih and Allen Gray. The apprentice division numbers such promising youngsters as Warren Van Tassel, Albert Siler, Otto Grohs.

With the best horses ever assembled here, and the strongest riding colony in the country, Tanforan's proverbial high percentage of winning favorites is likely to continue setting the standard for the West.

The racing strip has been pronounced in perfect shape by horsemen and a uniform speed is maintained at all times. It has always been considered one of the safest and best tracks in the country.

COUNTY EQUIPMENT SUPERINTENDENT DIES

Charles Benjamin Morton, 53, superintendent of county equipment at Redwood City, died at his Burlingame home Tuesday morning of this week, an hour after suffering a heart attack. Funeral services were held yesterday. Cremation was at Cypress Lawn Cemetery.

HOLD UNITED SERVICE FOR THANKSGIVING

Two leading men from each religious faith will take important parts in the second annual United Thanksgiving services to be held at the Civic Auditorium in San Francisco at 9:30 a. m. on November 24, according to a tentative program released by the citizens committee in charge of the affair today.

For the Catholics, Father Thomas F. Burke of Newman Hall U. C., will be the presiding officer and Monsignor Thomas Sullivan will give the benediction.

Rev. Homer K. Pitman will deliver the invocation and Rev. A. Lowther will speak on "the charitable spirit," from the Protestant group.

As a direct answer to Jewish persecution in Europe, the executive committee for the interdenominational worship have selected the Rabbi Irving F. Reichert to give the Thanksgiving address and Rabbi Rudolph R. Coffee will read the president's Thanksgiving Day Proclamation.

Assassin Of Nazi Envoy

Herschel Grunspan

Herschel Grunspan, 17, Polish-Irish refugee, whose assassination of a Nazi diplomat in France led to the present Jewish persecution crisis in Germany. Grunspan entered the German embassy in Paris and shot Ernest Von Rath, third secretary to the Nazi Ambassador, because the Germans had rigidly restricted Jewish movements. Von Rath died later and his body was returned to Germany.

CITY COUNCIL REVUES THREE MAJOR ITEMS

Propose "Teeth" For Local Building Ordinance

Two important ordinances and a resolution which will effect major changes in procedure in one of the city departments were taken up at the city council meeting Monday evening.

A strict building ordinance provided with "teeth" was introduced by Councilman Julius Twisten. This ordinance, which has been under consideration for several months, will act as a guide in granting building permits and will authorize the building inspector to immediately halt any work which is not proceeding under proper specifications.

An ordinance regulating the personnel and compensation of firemen was introduced by Councilman Twisten. Both the building and fire ordinances will be acted on at the next regular council meeting.

To modernize the city accounting system and to make balances of all accounts continuously accessible a resolution was unanimously adopted which provides for several major changes in accounting methods.

The city council appropriated ten dollars to the annual Red Cross roll call. Ernest W. Cuneo, city representative on the WPA city hall construction, submitted a comprehensive report on work in progress on the new hall.

Dist. Health Office Proves Advantage

Newly opened district health offices, at 7375 Mission street, are expected to prove of great advantage to Daly City and locality, according to Dr. Charles C. Gans, director of the San Mateo County Department of Public Health and Welfare. Heretofore, the central clinic has handled the entire county public health situation. Now, with the establishment of district health offices, each locality will have its individual clinic to clear all cases. Congestion will be relieved at the Community Hospital clinic; treatment of cases will be speeded up and long expensive trips for clinic patients will be eliminated.

The Daly City District Clinic, which includes Lawndale, Colma, South San Francisco, Daly City, Brisbane, Bayshore and all points north of Pedro Point on the Coast, gives general clinic services Monday morning of each week, beginning at 9 a. m. A sanitary inspector is on duty every day at the district office except Saturday afternoons, Sundays and holidays. Phone number is Randolph 1170 and all sanitary complaints should be reported there.

A doctor, a nurse and a social service worker are available at the new health center.

Two Big Events At S. M. Jaysee

Two important events dominate San Mateo Junior College activities this week with the students producing their term play, "Three Corners Moon" last night and tonight in the college auditorium and the football game with Santa Ana jaysee this afternoon at San Mateo.

"Three Corners Moon" deals with the adventures of a family during the stock market crash and furnishes excellent comedy. Miss Ada Beveridge, drama instructor, directs the student actors.

Santa Ana, champion of its own conference in Southern California, comes to San Mateo for the first time to face the Mateans. The game today is the only home game for San Mateo and will start at 2:15 p. m.

Fifteen of the junior college journalism students and their instructor, E. A. McAllister, attended the press convention at the University of California, Saturday. The group participated in discussions, heard John D. Barry, San Francisco newspaper man, address the noon luncheon meeting, and then attended the California-Oregon grid game.

San Mateo coeds held a horseshow recently at the Gymkhana Club in San Mateo with a number of riders from other colleges also competing for prizes for horsemanship.

Trees, shrubs and flowers native to the eleven states which will exhibit in the Hall of Western States at the 1939 California World's Fair, will be planted around the building.

Chief Conducts Quiz On Traffic Rules

Chief E. Raymond Cato of the California Highway Patrol, is conducting a traffic questionnaire in which all citizens are invited to participate. Queries on any highway or traffic problem should be sent to Chief Cato at Sacramento. Answers will be given at an early date.

Following are a few representative questions and answers:

Q—I am a girl, 14 years old, live in the country and use my bicycle to and from school. On which side of the road must I ride. One tells me to stay to the left and the other to the right. I am all confused as are many others at our school. M. A.C.

A—You should always ride on the right side of the highways, just the same as all other traffic. Only when walking should you use the left side for the reason you may more easily see oncoming vehicles and avoid being injured.

Q—A certain bakery delivery truck visits house to house on our street and drives from one side of the street to the other, as well as backs up sometimes, a half a block, and often on the wrong side of the street. Why is this permitted? M.C.O.

A—Such driving is clearly in violation of the law and the owner of the truck or the baking company should be notified. They will be glad to co-operate because, in case of an accident, they would become involved in a serious controversy.

Q—When the entire lighting system of a car goes out of commission and one is, as I recently was, 25 miles from anywhere, what offense do I commit if I drive without lights? T.R.E.

A—The offense is one against your own life and safety. The law does require such a vehicle to be moved to a place of safety where it will not interfere nor endanger other traffic, but cannot be driven on the highway.

Q—Are red colored running road lights permitted on passenger cars? C.F.Y.

A—No, only white or green lights

ARTISTS DISCOVER MISSION ORNAMENTS

Stone ornaments over the entrance of the San Carlos Mission at Monterey were cleaned of whitewash recently by two WPA Federal Art Project artists, Emile Cero and Vera Van Voris, of the Index of American Design, which is engaged in recording early art patterns of the Mission Period, as part of the art heritage of California. The architectural decoration of the San Carlos Mission, uncovered by the artists, had been carved by Manuel Estavan Ruiz, a Mexican sculptor, who came to Monterey in 1791 to teach masonry to the neophytes.

Under the whitewash were found not only fine details of feature, drapery and floral design, but also two contrasting shades of vivid mineral red paint. These pigments were undoubtedly the original paint used, and is similar to that found on the altar of Mission San Juan Bautista and on the ceiling at the Santa Clara Mission.

The Presidio Church at Monterey, known as the San Carlos Mission, was founded by Father Junipero Serra in 1794, and is one of the few stone Churches of the Mission Period still standing in California.

Throughout the United States the WPA Art Project is making colored plates of cultural patterns of early America. These plates are being compiled into portfolios and will eventually be made available to schools, libraries, designers and manufacturers.

may be used and these may not be visible to the front or rear.

Q—When is payment for 1939 automobile license plates due? A.J.B.

A—January 1, 1939.

Q—Has the law been modified concerning noisy mufflers? There is a young man in our neighborhood whose car sounds like the Japanese-China war when he starts his car. He seems to reach down and open some catch to create this racket? Can't this be stopped? J.J.

A—The law has not been changed and a complaint to your local police traffic organization should bring prompt results.

Medics Plan Co-op Health Service

Doctor W. W. Roblee, of Riverside, president of the California Medical Association, with a membership of 6000 physicians, made an important announcement Monday of this week.

"The Council of the Association," said Doctor Roblee, "at its meeting in San Francisco today, directed its Committee on Medical Service to put into final form a plan by which medical and hospital service will be furnished to citizens of California and their dependents on a monthly payment basis.

"The plan will be operated by the California Medical Association or its representatives and will provide the services of all licensed doctors of medicine in the State who are willing to abide by the rules and regulations necessary to operate the plan.

"The subscribers will have free choice of physicians in this group and also of hospitals for it is contemplated to use the facilities of the three large hospital service associations which have pioneered hospital service plans in California, Insurance Association of Approved Hospitals in the Bay Region, the Intercoast Hospitalization Insurance Association in the Sacramento Valley and the Associated Hospital Service of Southern California in Los Angeles and other southern counties.

"The Council has called a special meeting of the House of Delegates of the Association to meet in Los Angeles on December 17 to approve the final plans which will speedily be put into operation after their approval."

Pedestrians who ignore traffic lights live a brief and jumpy life, according to the Safety Department of the National Automobile Club. Crossing against the red signal light saves no time and is a sure cure for long life. It is a matter of record that two-thirds of all people killed in traffic in American cities are pedestrians.

DRAMA - MUSIC - BOOKS

DALY CITY GETS NEW MUSIC STUDIO

Erna Slee, popular San Francisco musician and teacher will open a combined studio and store at 6454 Mission street, Saturday, November 26 to serve the Daly City area. The local studio will be under the management of one of her former students, Andrew Nelson. Mr. Nelson will be glad to interview all local residents interested in lessons or the purchase of instruments.

Erna Slee and her students are well known to Bay Area music lovers as they have made frequent appearances at San Francisco theatres.

BOOK REVEALS HARD MONEY POPULAR

During the Civil War California passed a law to stop monetary inflation. This item of economic history was encountered by the Federal Writers Project of the Works Progress Administration while compiling "California: A Guide to the Golden State," which will soon be published.

Because of the enormous wartime drain on the United States Treasury, paper money became almost the only kind in use in the Eastern States. The ultimate value of this "printing press" money depended, of course, on whether or not the Union were to be finally preserved. In San Francisco the Director of the Mint called a public meeting and urged loyal Californians to do their part for the Union by accepting the paper currency. To Californians, however, paper currency wasn't money... it was "shinplasters." They refused to accept it. Soon after, the legislature passed a specific contract law, which definitely made California a hard money state.

To some extent Californians still prefer coins to paper money. This State is one of the last strongholds of the silver dollar, replaced nearly everywhere else by the one-dollar greenback.

WPA Constructs Most Modern Theatre In World for Fair

The world's most modern theatre, and incidentally the first to be authorized by the Federal government out of federal funds for the theatre project, is under construction on Treasure Island, site of the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition. The Federal Theatre Project will have three exhibits: a Main Auditorium, the Children's Marionette Theatre, and an out-door Sylvan Theatre, where daily, it is planned to offer the greatest variety of dramatic presentations ever programmed. The building is being constructed out of box office receipts earned by the various Federal Theatre Projects throughout the country.

On the three stages will be presented practically every known form of classic and modern dramatization for the entertainment and cultural enlightenment of the millions expected to visit the fair.

The main auditorium, seating 464, will house excerpts from the work of hundreds of research and technical experts of the Federal Theatres, and will be, it is said, the most complete and comprehensive display of its kind ever brought together. Every division and department of the theatre will be represented, including authentic models of world famed and historic theatres of all eras.

LIVING NEWSPAPER

Exhibits showing the origin of the Living Newspaper, evolved by the New York City Federal Theatre Project, will be displayed. Unique elaborations of this form of dramatization are planned for special presentation with frequent changes of bill; plays based on thrilling events in the news at the moment. It is also planned to produce excerpts from outstanding successes of the various Federal Theatres throughout the country.

Dramatic exhibits in this auditorium will change every hour, with none exceeding 45 minutes in duration. This will allow 15 minutes for change of scenery, costume and audience.

NEW TYPE STAGE

The theatre, designed by Timothy Pflueger, San Francisco architect, will be the most modern from every aspect, ever constructed. The architect has followed suggestions of Federal Theatre authorities and technical staffs and designed the building so that the auditorium as well as the stage proper becomes part of the playing area. The development of this area is in keeping with Miss Hallie Flanagan's concept of the modern theatre. (Miss Flanagan is national director of the Federal Theatre Project.) Huge side stages will not only facilitate the instantaneous changes required for modern stage technique but will provide entrance and space for pictorial compositions unknown to present day audiences.

In a control room located in the balcony, an operator seated at an electric console may, by playing the keys much like an organist secure any variation of light required, open or close the curtains, handle the public address system, and increase the stage opening at will.

LIGHTING

Since this building is to house a presentation of ideas rather than dramatic externals, sets will be reduced to a minimum, lighting will become of first importance, and the operator in the control room, a combination of Gordon Craig and Norman Bel Geddes, both exponents of modern stage technique.

In addition to dramatic presentations the main auditorium will be the scene of dance concerts, classical groups, showing of documentary films depicting the progress and vast scope of the work of the Works Progress Administration's many branches, lectures by notable speakers and authorities on the dance, playwriting, stage direction, and many other pertinent features dealing with the technique of the living theatre.

Here, also, will be heard—with the co-operation of the Federal Music Project—a series of little known operettas such as Mozart's "The Impresario"; Rossini's "Brusino"; Schubert's "Domestic War"; Weber's "Abu Hassan," and many others.

MARIONETTES

The Children's Marionette Theatre will be made ideal for the entertainment of the youngsters. Parents may be assured that their children will see nothing but the best in educational entertainment.

SYLVAN THEATRE

The Sylvan Theatre will be located outdoors but within the colonaded court of the huge Federal Exhibits Building. Stages for the presentation of symphonies, great and colorful pageants on the States' and national holidays during the Fair year, chamber music concerts and modern dance spectacles, will be constructed to accommodate thousands.

According to Willard White, Exposition and Federal Theatre Project co-ordinator and executive assistant to George Creel, U. S. Commissioner representing the government at the Golden Gate International Exposition, all equipment, all material, right down to the last bolt, will be utilized after the Fair. The building will be so constructed that it may be removed later without loss of material, to one or more locations in national or state parks and there reconstructed for the use of the people and to serve as a lasting monument to the remarkable work accomplished by the various units of the Federal Project throughout the country.

WPA SYMPHONY OFFERS UNIQUE PRIVILEGE

The presentation of Beethoven's monumental "Ninth Symphony" under the baton of Walter Herbert, guest conductor, in the Civic Auditorium, Tuesday evening, November 22, at 8 p. m. by the Federal Music Project of the Works Progress Administration, will mark an unparalleled opportunity in the musical history of the Bay Area. This is the first time local citizens have been offered the privilege of hearing this sublime music for such a nominal admittance fee.

The same program will also offer the "Jubilee Cantata" by Vladimir Ussachevsky, conducted by Giulio Silva with the combined federal choruses participating.

FREE LECTURE

The Federal Music Project of the Works Progress Administration announces a free lecture on Beethoven's "Ninth Symphony" by Mr. Tomo Yagodka in the Federal Music Theatre, 960 Bush street, Monday evening, November 21 at 8:30. The general public is cordially invited to attend on this occasion. Those desiring guest tickets may obtain them by telephoning the Federal Music Project: Ordway 7821, and they will be forwarded by return mail.

Body Styles
Offered

Scores of new advancements are featured in the new 1939 Chrysler, according to A. L. Timossi of the Mission Auto Company, local Chrysler-Plymouth agency. Among these are new steering wheel gear shift, added roominess, thoroughly modern appearance, and extra safety features.

"For 1939," said Timossi, "Chrysler offers three lines, the Royal, Imperial and the Custom Imperial, with a total of thirteen body styles. The Royal and Imperial both come in four body styles, namely, four-door sedan, two-door sedan, coupe and Victoria coupe, the latter seating four persons. The Custom Imperial is built in five-passenger sedan, seven-passenger sedan and sedan-limousine body styles. In addition to the standard Royal, Chrysler has introduced a "Royal Windsor," and for those requiring an exceptionally commodious car, the Royal is available in a seven-passenger sedan and sedan limousine. The standard Imperial is supplemented by the "New Yorker," and the "Saratoga," the latter a car designed especially for men and upholstered in leather and Bedford cord."

One of the most important advances in the 1939 lines is the introduction of an improved type of transmission, according to the local dealer, known as the "Cruise and Climb." In general principle, this transmission is similar to the overdrive previously used in Chrysler cars, but it is vastly more valuable to the average driver in that it cuts in at speeds of from 23 to 28 miles an hour, instead of above 50.

NEW GEAR SHIFT
Another new feature of the 1939 Chrysler is the new gear-shift lever with gear shift assembly on the steering wheel. The hand brake has been moved to the left side of the driver, leaving the front compartment with a level and unobstructed floor.

In appearance the new Chryslers are best described as "modern." They are designed on the famous Airflow principle, with dynamic, moving lines. Fenders have been newly designed with a sweeping line, with built-in headlamps. Windshields of the modern V-type, four inches wider and one and one-quarter inches higher than those used in 1938, bring increased vision and further contribute to safety. The rear and lines have been re-designed to conform to the streamlined front end. Luggage compartments are entirely concealed and the tail lamps are streamlined to fit into the new rear fenders.

The interiors of the 1939 Chrysler have been refined and improved in many ways. The instrument panel is of entirely new and modernistic design, done in chrome and ivory. Control buttons are compactly grouped and the big glove box is steel covered as a protection against theft.

The rear compartment floor is wide and level. Additional leg room is provided by a foot rest recessed into the back of the front seat. A new type of crystal reflector reading lamp and other interior improvements also add to the luxury of the appointments.

STEELHEAD FISHING
From Orleans on the Klamath River comes the report that steelhead fishing is good at present, according to the Outing Department of the National Automobile Club. More fish are being taken with spinners since recent heavy rains. Anglers are warned that the limit from November 1 to February 28 is five trout and two salmon. By "trout" is meant anything in the trout family, from a 15 pound steelhead to a little five inch. So, the maximum limit that can be brought in now is five trout, regardless of size, and two salmon; with the exception of tidewater section of the Klamath River, where five salmon and five trout can be taken. Anglers should bear in mind that steelhead and true trout are the same and are rated as such.

Anti-freeze should be put in the car early enough to ward off even the first light frosts, warns L. G. Evans, general service manager of the National Automobile Club. Before putting in anti-freeze of any kind, the motorist should be sure the system has been drained and refilled with clear water and free from leaks.

An Eye-ful—Not a Trunk-ful

The gal doesn't begin to fill the capacious 1939 Studebaker luggage compartment. Incidentally ALL the luggage you see fits in the capacious compartment with ease.

SAFETY LIGHT SPEEDOMETER ON NEW DODGE

New Device May Be Seen At Local Dealer's

One of the interesting details of the new Dodge Luxury Liner models now on display locally at Pantaleoni Brothers, 7046-7054 Mission street is a revolutionary "Safety-Light" speedometer incorporated in the instrument panel layout and functioning in a manner similar to the lights which control traffic intersections by flashing green, amber and red signals.

This new safety device takes the form of a speed indicator and mileage recorder from which it differs by being without the customary speed hand. As the car gets under way, its speed is shown by the movement of a translucent "bead" which is illuminated by instrument panel lights and automatically changes color as the car enters different ranges of speed.

For speeds ranging from zero to 30 miles per hour, the color of the tell-tale "bead" is green; for speeds from 30 to 50 miles it is amber; for speeds above fifty miles the "bead" is red.

Thus, by giving its speed indications through the medium of changing colors which are noted at a glance and with the meaning all motorists are familiar, drivers of the new Dodge Luxury Liners are kept informed of speeds at which they proceed without being obliged to peer at figures or locate a pointer.

To prevent skidding, avoid sudden stops on slippery roads, warns the Safety Department of the National Automobile Club. Slowing up gradually by stepping on the brake pedal often and lightly is the safest manner in which to stop. Motorists should drive as they would walk on any wet or icy surface.

Wind Tunnel Shows Gains In Design

The auto industry's newest wind tunnel—as modern and precise as any yet devised for testing aircraft—reveals valuable improvements in recent motor car design.

Even while shunning extreme designs or grotesque shapes in pursuit of reduced wind resistance, leading auto designers have scored gains in the last five years that actually result in lower fuel consumption, according to D. S. Eddins, Plymouth president.

"Improved design in the last four years alone," Mr. Eddins said, "has reduced wind resistance by 16 per cent on our own Plymouth models. We now know this definitely, by direct comparison in the new wind tunnel just completed by Chrysler Corporation engineers at our Highland Park research laboratory. That means more than an extra mile to the gallon for Mr. Average Motorist, driving his 1939 model car."

"This new wind tunnel, more scientific and exact than any previous apparatus used by the auto industry, shows up the 'outside' facts about modern motor car performance and actually measures the effect of recent improvements in car design."

"For example, we now find that the latest Plymouth model, with its 82 horsepower engine, uses only twelve horsepower in cruising along at 40 miles an hour. This may explain why so many owners write in to the factory with enthusiastic reports about fuel economy. Even at higher speeds, we find surprising gains within the past four years. Today, we discover our cars require four horsepower less to overcome wind resistance of 60 miles per hour; or with a car travelling 60 miles an hour against a 20-mile wind, making a total wind resistance of 80 miles an hour, nearly nine horse-

Auto Show In Final Two Days

The first week at San Francisco's Twenty-third Annual Pacific Automobile Show has proved both the popularity of Rudy Vallee as an entertainment attraction and the saleability of the new 1939 model motor cars which share the spotlight with the radio star as auto show magnets. "Crowds to date have exceeded our fondest anticipations," said Glen Statter, president of the San Francisco Motor Car Dealer Association when interviewed. "We are exceeding the attendance records set at last year's show for the corresponding nights by upwards of thirty per cent and the Auto Show crowds are building nightly as people who attend tell their friends of the excellence of the Vallee entertainment troupe."

The Auto Show which opened last Friday continues through today and tomorrow, featuring new model motor cars and trucks and a pleasing display of accessories. The entertainment features Rudy Vallee and his troupe of fifty musicians and entertainers in a twice-a-day appearance on the Civic Auditorium stage, once at 3 p.m. and again at 9 p.m.

SUSPECT BATTERY

The battery often is responsible for those mysterious rattles which seem to emanate from beneath the car, according to L. G. Evans, general service manager of the National Automobile Club. Its hold-down bolts, like those elsewhere throughout the car, are subject to loosening. The noise resulting may vary from a rattle to a thump and, in both cases is occasionally difficult to locate.

KEEP LOCKS OILED

Regular lubrication of the door locks accomplishes more than merely making the doors easier to open and close, reports L. G. Evans, general service manager of the National Automobile Club. It is a money saving proposition. If the locks are allowed to go un-lubricated for long periods, internal troubles are likely to develop. Their correction will require removal of the upholstery, a task that takes considerable time on the part of the mechanic, whose time is money—your money.

power has been saved—which is directly reflected in fuel savings to the owner."

Locally the new Plymouth models are on display at the Mission Auto Company, Pantaleoni Brothers and Donahue and Laufenberg.

SLOW UP!

Darkness comes earlier these days, and with darkness comes danger in driving. Slow up a bit on your way home at night, and avoid taking the chance of an accident. November also means pavements slippery with wet leaves.

When the sun goes down it is a signal to redouble your caution at the wheel. For every mile of travel, three times as many people are killed in traffic at night as in the daytime, according to the records of the National Safety Council.

The night pedestrian in dark clothes presents another reason for extreme caution when driving after dark.

Be especially sure, when you are behind the wheel, that you can stop within the clear distance you can see ahead. Don't Out-Drive Your Headlights.

Auto Club Advises Use Of Ambulance

Good Samaritans who grab up an accident victim, dump him into an automobile, rush pell-mell off to a hospital, have the best intentions in the world but often do more harm than good, according to the California State Automobile Association.

Doctors are agreed that in nine cases out of ten, the best course is to make the patient as comfortable as possible and allow him to lie quietly until the ambulance arrives. Of course, good judgment should be exercised in all cases, but unless there is a large loss of blood or unless the ambulance is not expected for a long time the patient will be done more harm than good by a rough, fast ride to the hospital.

Medical authorities agree that it is best not to move an accident victim any more than actually necessary until medical help arrives, unless it is done by someone familiar with first aid practices.

Many lives will be saved and much unnecessary suffering prevented if motorists resist the impulse to rush the injured person to a hospital in an automobile.

Local Doctor Once In Russian Army

To Doctor Ivan T. Budaeff, Daly City must seem a quiet and restful place indeed.

High official in the Kerensky government, wartime regimental doctor refugee from the Bolsheviks in Russia and Chinese Turkestan, captive guest of the Chinese in a huge temple on the Gobi desert, medical attendant at a Peiping mission, assistant in Russian refugee work in China, medical student in the U. S.—these are a few of the experiences Dr. Budaeff had before he came to Daly City a few months ago to open medical offices in the Masonic Building.

Dr. Budaeff dismisses most of these hair-raising incidents by referring to the period as "dark days that might better be forgotten." He merely mentions that he served two years in the Russian White army. Casually he adds that when the Bolshevik overthrow split Russia wide open, he and his comrades were in hiding underground for seven months, with only an occasional peep at the sky under cover of night. Then as refugees in Turkestan they spent two months of starving freezing hardship so that their numbers dwindled from 35,000 to 7,000 men, most of them victims of the typhus germ.

Finally, surrendering to the Chinese, they were forced to break their swords and give up all their arms. Then, and only then, were they given food and installed in a huge religious temple on the Gobi desert. Later at Peiping Dr. Budaeff worked among Russian refugees then came to the United States in 1923 where at Oregon university he completed his medical studies.

Now at Daly City he finds joy in his work and pleasure in his greatest hobby—chess.

SALT LAKE CITY

WHAT GOES ON HERE?

This is your own home town. For that reason it is by far the most important place in the world to you.

How much do you know about it? Is it progressing rapidly or standing still? What are your neighbors doing to make it a more interesting community? How do its citizens work and play?

The Daly City Record is the ONLY newspaper which carries the full news of how your own home town is progressing, the only paper which carries news of your local friends and organizations. The big dailies bring you more world news, perhaps, but no local information. This is why you need the Daly City Record—it tells you the story of your home and neighbors, the most vital news printed, as far as you are concerned.

In addition, of course, it has full coverage of San Mateo County news and surveys of world affairs.

Buy it—read it regularly for all the news of Daly City and its many business, civic, fraternal and educational activities.

SPECIAL OFFER

As a special introductory offer, the Daly City Record will give away a dollar box of choice Christmas cards with each new subscription which is paid two months in advance. The rate is 25c per month now that carrier service has been instituted. Call Randolph 3215 and a representative will come to see you.

The musical part of the program will be presented by the Burlingame high school choral, under the direction of Elmer Young. Reverend Cecil G. Osborne of the Burlingame Baptist Church will offer the character development thought, and George White, district chairman of Fathers' Forum and Frank J. Steele, district chairman of Fathers Forum memberships, will speak briefly of their departments.

Mrs. B. D. Ralston, district president, will preside. This meeting is under the direction of Mrs. George Bruns, third vice-president, and members of the department of extension, Mesdames G. B. McKinney, C. S. Hower, Antoinette Kzowski, R. H. Chamberlain, Ted Andrews, R. L. Holder, and G. McCullough.

Jeff Hi P. T. A. Holds Evening Meeting

The Parent-Teacher Association of Jefferson Union high school met Tuesday evening in the main auditorium of the high school. The program was dedicated to recreation. Mr. John Mathews gave a review of the work carried on during the past vacation under supervision of trained instructors. Arthur Wright, a student, gave a student's reaction to recreation. Mr. James Ferguson, principal of the school, explained the many opportunities offered on the high school grounds for adults as well as students.

Music under the direction of Mr. Oscar Busch was played by the orchestra.

Dramatic activities were demonstrated by a play "Eleven Million Men," under the direction of Mr. William Hoppe. This play, put on by students of the dramatics class and dedicated to Armistice Day, showed talent and excellent training. The P. T. A. Unit wishes to thank the teachers for their help and cooperation in furnishing such an interesting and instructive program.

Mr. Herbert King, president of Fathers' Forum of Daly City, gave a short talk and asked every man to join the Fathers' Forum and help promote the interests of our children.

Mrs. E. Cavagnaro was appointed delegate to the district meeting, November 18 at Burlingame.

WILL BEGIN TO CUT CHRISTMAS TREES

Woodsmen in several national forests of California will be busy at work next week harvesting Christmas trees for the coming Yule season.
And just to see that only the tree bidders approved by Uncle Sam operate on the designated timber areas the Forest Service has assigned a number of officers to safeguard the forests from trespassers who cut and haul trees without written permit.

State law provides a stiff penalty for Christmas tree poachers so a Forest Service highway patrol is also in operation along heavily traveled roads checking truck loads of Christmas trees for proper clearance papers.

Each year at this time protests arise over what is termed "wasteful and destructive Christmas tree cutting." Indiscriminate and unregulated tree cutting, say the Forest Service, is usually harmful to timbered lands. But forest rangers point out that carefully regulated tree harvesting is distinctly beneficial to overstocked forest lands and in keeping with the best forest management practices. Many owners of private lands are also known to be doing beneficial cutting.

Species of Christmas trees in most popular demand are the red fir, commonly known as the silver tip, and the white fir and Douglas fir. According to Forest Service statistics, over 50,000 trees are harvested each Christmas season in the national forests of California.

Celebrities of Hollywood will take part in "The Making of a Motion Picture," feature of "Hollywood Boulevard," a million dollar concession at the 1939 California World's Fair.

"Hardy Family" Pictures Enjoy Wide Popularity

Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland in "Love Finds Andy Hardy"

Daly City Feature Stars Mickey Rooney

"The rapidly growing 'series' idea in motion pictures is offering one solution to Hollywood's perennial plea for new faces," says George Seitz, who directed the fourth of the "Judge Hardy" series, "Love Finds Andy Hardy," which will be showing at the Daly City Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

"In these pictures the cast 'nucleus' remains unchanged, but with new adventures encountered in each successive release, it is necessary to provide new talent.

"In both the Judge Hardy and Jones Family groups, the primary interest being in youthful members of the cast, additions to the cast are usually made from young players.

"In 'You're Only Young Once,' second of the Hardy Family pictures, two newcomers were given a chance to prove themselves, as Eleanor Lynn and Ted Pearson were given featured roles.

"Judge Hardy's Children" served as the vehicle with which Jacqueline Laurent, French importation, was introduced to American film audiences.

"In the latest Hardy Family production, 'Love Finds Andy Hardy,' the studio placed another of its younger players in an important role. Lana Turner, although twice-tried in films, is given her biggest part in the picture as Mickey Rooney's erratic and feather-brained girl friend, "Army Girl," with Madge Evans and Preston Foster, will also be seen on the same program.
